

VAKULA

SIKHARAM

Vakula Devi is the foster mother of Lord Venkateswara. Vakula Matha Temple is situated in Peruru(patakaluva) located in Tirupati city, Andhra Pradesh. As per the legend of Tirumala, it dates back to Dvapara Yuga when Yasoda, the foster mother of Lord Krishna (avatar of Lord Vishnu) complains to him that she could not witness any of his marriages. To this, Lord Krishna replies he would ensure she would get such opportunity later in Kaliyuga.

Srinivasa and Vakula In Kaliyuga, Lord Vishnu adorns the world as Lord Venkateswara and Yasoda is reborn as Vakula Devi, foster mother of Lord Venkateswara, to arrange his wedding with Padmavati the daughter of King Akasa Raja. Thus Vakula Devi [1] fulfills her wish to witness the kalyanam (wedding) of Lord Venkateswara.
